

In celebration of....

African American History Month 2004

Sponsored by the U.S. Army Garrison Ft. Belvoir EEO Office and the Black Employment Program Committee

Kickoff Reception and Video "Eyes on the Prize (Awakenings)"

Thursday, 5 February 1130-1300 Howell Auditorium, Defense Acquisition University

"Awakenings" concentrates on the period from 1954-56 when "separate but equal" doctrine was challenged and ordinary citizens and local leaders joined the Black struggle for freedom.

Video showing and discussion "Eyes on the Prize (Fighting Back)"

Thursday, 12 February 1130-1300 Barden Education Center Auditorium

Public schools became a battlefield when Blacks rejected the notion of "separate but equal" education. Let's explore the 1954 Supreme Court Brown v. Board of Education decision.

Main Observance featuring General Johnnie E. Wilson, USA, Retired

Tuesday, 24 February 1130-1300 Ft. Belvoir Officers Club Main Ballroom

General Wilson, former commander of U.S. Army Materiel Command, is the keynote speaker at this gala event. Join us for an ethnic food sampling, singing and much more.

For further information contact the Ft. Belvoir EEO Office Special Emphasis Program Manager at (703) 805-5390. This activity is designed to enhance cultural awareness among soldiers, civilians and their families. It is an extension of the Ft. Belvoir Garrison equal opportunity education and training initiative.
